

How can i turn windows automatic live update off?

Contributed by X-Ception
Friday, 14 December 2007

Most IRC users like to idle while there sleeping, normally on an away nick. Changes to the windows operating system often lead to unwanted reboots which in turn disconnect a user from IRC and often do not restart that connection on there own. One way although not advised to do so is to turn off windows automatic updates

- Go to Control Panel
- Click on Automatic Updates
- Click Disable

This may differ on later versions of windows i.e Windows Vista.

Provided by Cosi